No previous actions discussed as re configured IAG

3. The Experience of Hate Crime:

DG Invited MP (LGBT) to give an update on hate crime she has experienced.

Short Video shown.

J O-D gave an overview of her experience since moving to Buckingham 18 yrs ago.

Travelling Community- gave an over view of experiences including within schools.

NA gave an overview from the muslin community.

Suggestions:

MP is happy to be point of contact for LGBT.

HA- has offered support through Youth Concern for 13-25 year olds living in Aylesbury Vale

3. Policing Hate Crime Data and Discussion- update

RW gave an overview of the hate crime data for Aylesbury Vale, explained that we have a daily meeting where any hate crime incidents from the last 24 hr period are discussed around threat risk and harm; these will then be allocated to an officer from ICR/Neighbourhood Policing.

- JD is the Hate Crime SPOC for Aylesbury Vale, he reviews all crimes
- OP Guidance- all officers have access, (Victim care and satisfaction graded 1-6)
- There is ongoing work around victim care, we encourage reporting
- RW- to look at web form re: Reporting a crime online
- NA- on 22nd October there is a Community Health Wellbeing event- NA to email JD the info for NHP Officers to attend. James.Davies@thamesvalley.police.uk
- ZFB – RW Hate Crime Data Presentation to be emailed to all attendees

4. What can we do?

5. HA- Hate Crime Awareness week is 8th-15th October See <https://nationalhcaw.uk> for resources to share within your community

Youth Concern will run an awareness campaign that week and HA encouraged everyone present to do so in their own communities
